

Please, do not disturb my evenings at home (or my much valued lunch hour) by having rude, disruptive phone callers calling my home. It has been so nice to have an entire meal without having to listen to telemarketers. Have you ever sat through a 20 minute question and answer session about tuna fish? I did and was not pleased.